2019 Dealers of Tomorrow Seminars

This year's Kansas City Dealers of Tomorrow program will focus on generational differences. This will go beyond learning about what is different to focus on what you need to do differently to sell to different age groups—and how to hire, coach and lead your employees.

Once again, participants will have the opportunity to attend a Kansas City Royals game.

We have reserved a luxury suite, so you can enjoy the evening in air-conditioned comfort or brave the heat and sit in stadium seats.

Either way, it's a great way to see a game and enjoy the company of other dealers to discuss the day's activities or how to solve day-to-day management issues.

This year's program will include lots of take-aways to help you do a better job when you return to your dealership: Larry Cole's leadership and coaching program will include a train-the-trainer component!

Plan to attend this informative program in either location. You'll have the opportunity to meet and visit with other dealers/managers like you. Be a part of this exciting program.

Prospering in Turbulent Times

Strategies to Pull Customers Close, Increase Sales & Maximize Profits—Kizer & Bender

Today's consumers have more choices than ever before. Customers can buy what you sell in any number of places, this means you must be better than ever, doing things that make your store different; special, memorable – cool things that make customers choose your store above all others. Join consumer anthropologists Rich Kizer and Georganne Bender as they share what it takes to be successful in today's crazy and competitive marketplace. You'll learn:

- What Customers Expect From Their Stores of Choice
- How to See Your Store Through Your Customers' Eyes
- Positive Perception Building Strategies that Lead to Increased Sales
- Street Savvy™ Relationship Building Techniques to Spin Your Doors

Prospering in Turbulent Times! is loaded with strategies, tactics, tips and techniques every retailer needs to know. You'll leave with great ideas you'll be able to implement the second you return to your business!

Hiring and Leading Millennials!—Jim Welch

What are the keys to success in recruiting, hiring, on-boarding, and leading millennials? How do you emotionally connect as a leader with millennials? How do you coach, develop, and create a culture millennials will embrace in the workplace? What are the pitfalls to avoid when hiring and leading millennials? Jim will provide you with real world techniques you can implement right away to help you achieve success.

GenerationSpeak! Kizer & Bender

You can't connect with people if you don't know who they are! The times they are a-changin', and so are your customers. Each day you work with three tribes of consumers, each one with a very different approach to shopping, building relationships, trust and confidence.

During this presentation you'll meet: Generation Z, the first fully digital generation of hyper-connected multi-taskers who speak "slanguage" and don't understand the concept of unplugging. By 2020, Gen Z will be 40% of all consumers, with $44 billion in annual spending; the Millennials, who hold $200 billion in annual buying power are our most diverse generation yet—they rely heavily on friends, blogs and social medias before making a purchase; Generation X, a family-oriented, tech-smart generation that's both independent and skeptical; and the 50+ ZOOMERS, a combination of the Baby Boomers and the Greatest Generation, who have morphed into one huge group of consumers with deep pockets and special needs they won't admit, but you need to know.

Consumer anthropologists Rich Kizer and Georganne Bender have done the research. Through observation, focus groups and one-on-one interviews with consumers of every generation, they share what it takes to serve your customers the way they want to be served. You'll learn what each generation expects from a visit to your store, and what they say drives them to your closest competitor.

Seriously, who are these people and what do they REALLY want? This isn't your typical "meet the generations" program. You'll learn what the age-gap means to your business, plus, how each generation is killing off industry sacred cows. You'll leave armed with the know-how to give each generation what they want, when they want it, the way that they want it!

Special Bonus Session: Governmental Affairs Federal & State Overview

WEDA CEO John Schmeiser will present a roadmap for the association to follow that will help guide decision making and taking action that is results oriented.

When executed properly, these efforts will expand the size and scope of the association's influence. The growth of the association in members and geographical area will lead to a commensurate expansion of influence and the ability to achieve desirable policy outcomes.

Equipment dealers have been an integral part of the agriculture economy for the past century, and continued involvement in the political arena will ensure that role for the next century.

During this session you will learn about our current legislative focus, issues that impact dealers, and how you can engage in advocacy efforts.

Coaching Employees for Peak Performance: Do You Have What it Takes?— Dr. Larry Cole

Coaching employees for peak performance is more than simply providing employees feedback. To be effective, the coach first must see themselves as a teacher and be willing to complete those responsibilities, and then, the employees must be eager participants in their talent development. Our focus during this class is providing tools for your managers to be more effective coaches.

This class has two overriding objectives: One is to introduce WEDA's comprehensive coaching model, which encompasses 1) the dealership's responsibilities, 2) the responsibilities for the coach and student, 3) the Personal Improvement Plan and 4) the coaching talent development process. Second is participating in "hands-on" exercises that will give you a jump start to become a more effective coach. You'll learn: 1) What it takes to be an effective coach; and 2) Coaching tools that can be applied regardless of whether your dealership is serious about creating a culture of talent development or not.

Kizer & Bender

Rich Kizer and Georganne Bender are consumer anthropologists, speakers, authors and consultants whose client list reads like a "Who's Who" in business. Companies internationally depend upon them for timely advice on consumers and the changing retail market place.

KIZER & BENDER are contributors to MSNBC's television program Your Business. They made Meetings & Conventions Magazine's list of Meeting Planners' Favorite Keynote Speakers, have been named two of Retailing's Most Influential People, are included in the Top 40 Omnichannel Retail Influencers, and the Top 50 Retail Influencers four years running. Their award-winning Retail Adventures blog was named the Top Retail Blog by PR Newswire Media, and is included in the Top 25 Websites for Retailers, Top 50 Retail Blogs, and the 7 Best Retail Publications just to name a few. KIZER & BENDER are partners and emcees for the popular Independent Retailer Conference.

Rich and Georganne are experts on generational diversity, consumer trends, marketing and promotion, and everything retail.

As consumer anthropologists they stalk and study that most elusive of mammals: today's consumer. Any speaker can talk about consumers, but they actually become them.

In addition to focus groups, one-on-one interviews and intensive on-site studies their research includes posing as every kind of customer you can imagine. The result of their research is literally straight from the mouth of the consumer: solid ground level intelligence you can use to better serve your own customers.
